Responding to the Qualification Validation Communication

Amway reviews each award qualification/Q-month to see if the business is built in a manner consistent with the spirit and integrity of the Amway Sales and Marketing Plan and the Rules of Conduct. All awards are subject to Amway review and approval prior to being granted and recognized.

Below are a few points that can be referred to when responding to the qualification validation notice that you may have received.

- ✓ Respond with details about the month in question only.
- ✓ Include comprehensive explanation on the strategies and business practices adopted.
- ✓ Acknowledge the specific points highlighted in the communication.
- ✓ Provide a significant and verifiable list of customers (your own and contributing downlines) to validate the qualifying month (must contain name and valid contact number)
- ✓ Furnish customer sales receipts against retailing done in the specific month.
- ✓ Respond within the stipulated timeframe mentioned in the communication.
- ✓ In case of any delay, please inform your Account Manager or write back to the QVG team
